In Colombia, public art was initially appropriated and understood as a means for the dissemination of socialist values as well as an instrument that promulgated progress and change in a nation desperately in need of a sense of identity. I can hardly wait for each month to pass, as I know that a new lesson will arrive. By the late s most workhouses outside London and the larger provincial towns housed only "the incapable, elderly and sick". So please be aware if you want to visit this UNESCO world heritage site, call ahead to see if the Dome is really open and nothing out of the ordinary is going on.
